The Boyertown Museum of Historic Vehicles is very active in the community, and feels strongly about educating the public. Since 2002, the Boyertown Museum of Historic Vehicles has occupied the old Walnut Street assembly plant and strives to maintain the historic character of the World War II factory and the 1872 Jeremiah Sweinhart Carriage factory. We are open to the public 7 days a week and strive to preserve, collect and exhibit vehicles built in Pennsylvania. Please help us to educate the public about Pennsylvania's wonderful Transportation History.
